

Univerza v Ljubljani

atrium

KICK-OFF MEETING

PRESENTATION OF EXAMPLES FROM SLOVENIA PREPARED BY TADEJA ZUPANCIC, ALENKA FIKFAK, SONJA IFKO / UNIVERSITY OF LJUBLJANA, FACULTY OF ARCHITECTURE

programme co-funded by the EUROPEAN UNION

architecture
of political
infrastructure

political influence

direct

indirect

assembly/parliament building

labour union building

communist party building

workers' quarters

cultural buildings

educational buildings

sport facilities

strong
architecture

fr

gile

people

levels

of political strength / fragility

diversity

of expressions in architecture

examplesSlovenia

Ljubljana

parliament

<http://www.virtualtourist.com>

architect: Vinko Glanz; 1954-58 data: <http://www.evidenca.org>

Nova Gorica

urban concept

architect:
Edo Ravnikar;
1947-51

municipal building

architect:
Vinko Glanz; 1948-55

data: <http://www.evidenca.org>

Kranj

municipal building

architect: Edo Ravnikar; 1958-60 data: <http://www.evidenca.org>

Trbovlje

workers' quarters

architects: Oton Gaspari, Marko Zupancic; 1947-56

data: Lenarcic, T.: Gradnja delavskega doma v Trbovljah / Kronika, Casopis za slovensko krajevno zgodovino, pp. 122-127, <http://www.evidenca.org> .

Zagorje

workers' quarters

architect: Emil Navinsek; 1957-59 data: <http://www.evidenca.org>

Hrastnik

workers' quarters

scale of case studies

nature of case studies

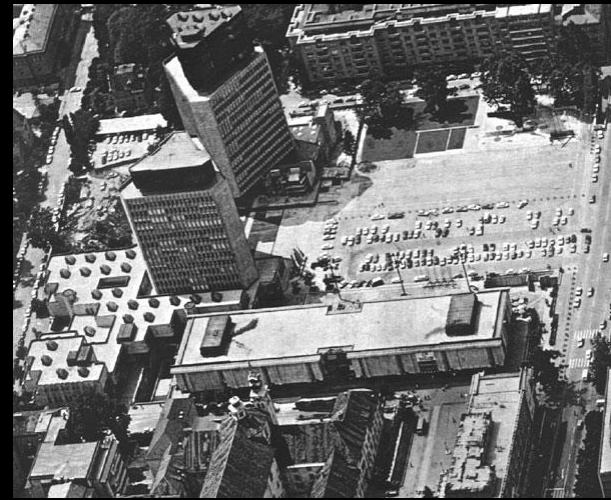

Ljubljana

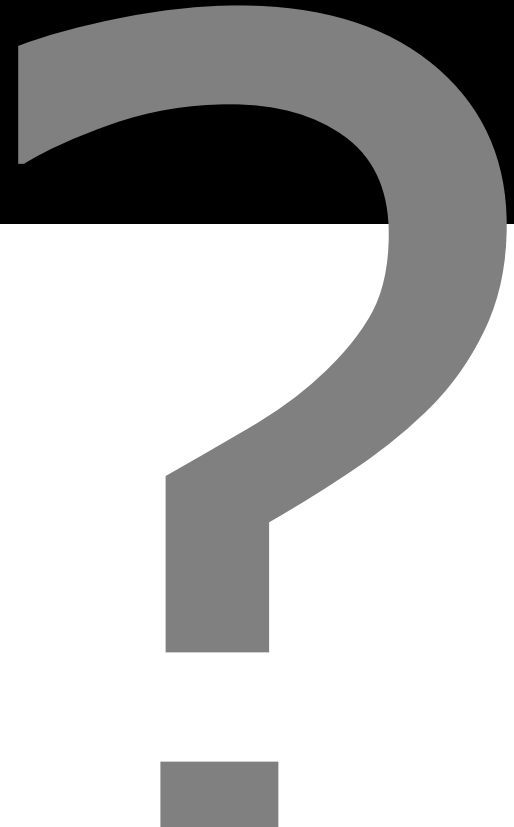

Square of Revolution

architects:
Edo Ravnikar,
Tone Bitenc,
Milos Bonca,
Joze Kozelj,
Anton Pibernik,
Franc Rihtar,
Vladislav Sedej;
1956-83

from buildings
to places

interrelation of atrium case studies

from cultural route
to cultural network